Important Dates

Have you been wondering when certain competitions will be held this Fall or Winter, or when the next test session will be? Well, look no further then to your right! All the information you need to know is always included in my newsletter and it is updated each month.

Notebooks

Have you checked your skater's notebook lately? Some of them are about to fall apart, while others already have! Please check your skater's notebook to see if they are in need of a new one!

While you're checking, you can also look at how they are doing in the Summer spin contest so far. This is the second week of the contest, which will run through the second week in August.
